MEMBER HIGHLIGHT

Kayla Whalen – Nurse care coordinator with UPMC Shares a brief presentation to share about the ACS Crucial Catch grant. In response they updated EHR to default to ordering HPV vax at age 9, included an emphasis on cancer prevention, educate providers on recommending the vaccine (same way, same day, and sandwiched with other vaxxes), use reminder calls/text messages/emails, screen savers, updated and reintroduced resources for families, co-branded partnership with ACS.

Data shared:

CCP average 47.3% for HPV completion rates data goes up to 21 yo (Pa 67%; USA 59%)

Completion rates are higher when the vaccine is started earlier (age 9)

Have increased HPV vax initiation rate for age 9-10 by 10%

Increased HPV vax completion rate by 1-2% for males and females

UPMC has over 300,000 patients total

Kacie Jankoski – great job! Changing the rates to 9yo, the increase in initiation will be transferred to completion rates in the future. Likes magnets as a reminder for patients to come back and complete the vaccine.

William Calo – why is there a big decrease in vaccination status among older age adolescents?

Kayla shared that they see the doctor less and receive more pushback from kids as they age
